of late MR EMMANUEL NARH GLOVER

“Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on... they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.”
(Revelation 14:13)

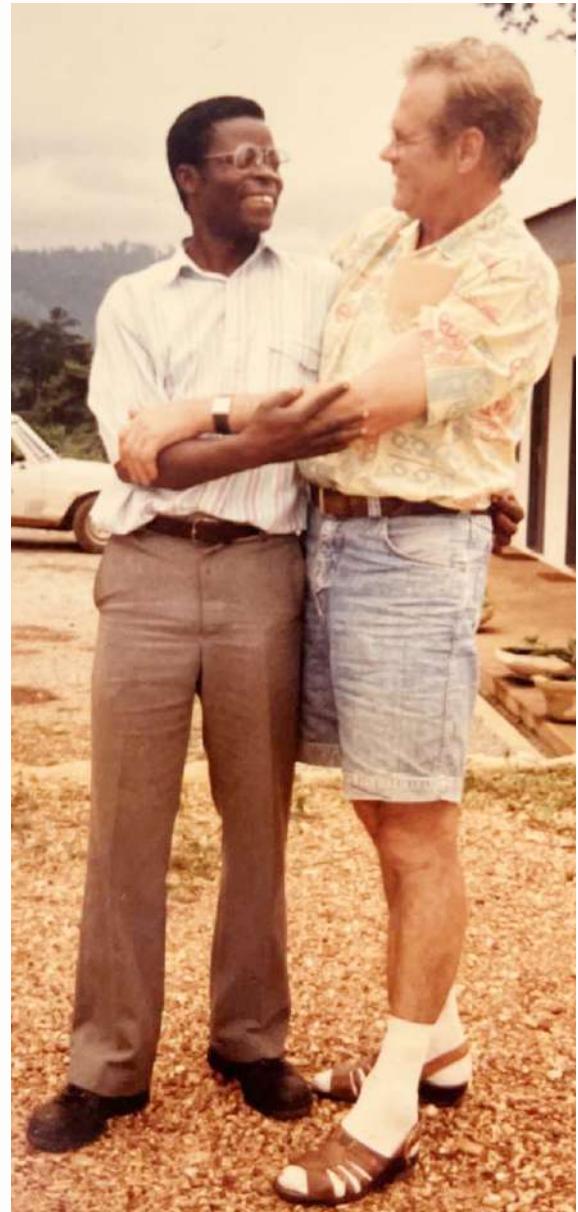

“A life of purpose, faith, and service leaves a legacy that speaks long after the voice is silent.”

The Late Mr Emmanuel Narh Glover was born on 10th May 1942 at Bososo in the Fanteakwa South District of the Eastern Region of Ghana to Mr Tei Glover and Madam Dede Wanye all of blessed memory..

Young Emmanuel was baptized into the Presbyterian Church on 11th December 1949 at Bososo by Rev. T. W. Twum. His early dedication to the Christian faith laid a strong foundation for a life marked by discipline, integrity, and service.

Emmanuel began his basic education at Bososo Presbyterian Primary School, where his academic promise became evident at an early age. He continued his secondary education at Presbyterian Secondary School (PRESEC), Odumase Krobo, where he successfully obtained his G.C.E. O' Level Certificate in 1966.

Driven by a passion for technical excellence and professional growth, Emmanuel pursued advanced training in construction and civil engineering. In 1980, he travelled to Germany to join his junior brother, Jacob Glover, where he undertook professional training in construction, specializing as a Concrete and Reinforced Concrete Builder (Betonbauer) at the State Vocational School for Building Construction, Civil Engineering and Surveying (Staatliche Berufsschule für Hoch-, Tiefbau & Vermessung) in Hamburg. His commitment to mastery led him to obtain the State-Certified Construction Technician qualification (Bautechniker) in 1983 from the Walter Hecker Technical School for Building Construction, Civil Engineering and Surveying in Kassel, Germany.

Despite the opportunities abroad, Emmanuel always yearned to return to Ghana to apply his acquired skills in service to his country. He returned home in 1985 and devoted his expertise to national development in the construction industry. He joined Top Construction Company Limited, Accra, where he served as an Assistant Project Manager, contributing significantly to the successful completion of some of the major construction projects being undertaken by the Company.

Between 1991 and 1999, he worked with Allgemeine Bau Union (ABU Ghana) and Frandesco & Partner West Africa as a Senior Supervisor for Concrete Works, playing a key role in both the first and second phases of the Sefwi Bekwai–Sefwi Wiawso Road Project—a vital infrastructure project that enhanced connectivity and economic activity in the Western North corridor.

From 1999 until his retirement, Emmanuel continued to offer his skills and experience to several construction companies, earning widespread respect as a dependable professional, a firm but fair supervisor, and a mentor to younger engineers and technicians.

Beyond his professional life, Emmanuel Narh Glover was a devoted family man. He was married to Madam Bernice Mamle Djabatey, and their union was blessed with four children: William Larweh Glover, Patrick Akwetey Glover, Patricia Akweley Glover, and David Tawiah Glover. He was a loving husband and father whose values of hard work, humility, and faith continue to guide his family. His immediate and extended families and friends mattered enormously to him. He appreciated them all.

The late Emmanuel Narh Glover will be remembered for his quiet strength, professional excellence, steadfast faith, and enduring contribution to Ghana's construction industry. His life stands as a testament to diligence, lifelong learning, and faithful service to both God and country.

We therefore give God the Glory for his Life
May His Soul Rest in Perfect Peace
Amen

Tribute by

WIFE OF THE LATE
MR. EMMANUEL NARH GLOVER

Through all the changing scenes of life, in trouble and in joy, the praises of my God shall still my heart and tongues employ.

My Beloved Husband, It still feels impossible to accept that you are gone. The 17th of September arrived quietly yet changed my life forever. Daa! We truly believed it would be one of those moments when you would scare us again and we would gather around your bed, laughing through tears and gently teasing you for scaring us, but this time was different. This time, you slipped gently into the arms of the Lord, leaving a silence our hearts are still learning to live with Daa!

You were more than just my husband, you were my partner, my strength, my safe space. Through the years, we built a life together anchored on love, patience and mutual respect. You loved us deeply and carried our home with quiet strength, humility, and grace. Your words were few, yet they lived in my heart, and even in silence you understood me completely. Though you are no longer here, you have never truly left. Your presence lingers in every corner of our home, especially in that chair you loved so much. I feel you in the small, painful details I now cling to the sunglasses you always wore when stepping out, and the evenings of preparing your neat fufu at exactly 5 p.m., just the way you liked it with chicken wing soup.

Though my heart aches, I am grateful to God for the gift of your life and the years we shared together. I take comfort in knowing you are resting in the arms of the LORD.

Until we meet again Daa!
Your legacy lives on
You will always be remembered
You will always be loved
Rest in eternal peace Daa!

Our Beloved Father

"Some lives speak softly yet leave echoes that remain forever in the hearts of those they loved".

Death has come to us in a way we did not choose and at a time we could not control. It is a reality none of us can prevent, no matter how much we love, plan, or hope. Though it has taken you from our physical presence, it cannot take away the memories you gave us, the values you lived by, or the love you planted in our hearts. We accept, with heavy hearts, that death is beyond human control, and in this acceptance, we choose to hold on to gratitude for the life you lived rather than bitterness for the loss we feel.

Wednesday, 17th September 2025, was a day of deep tragedy for us. Just days after returning from Odumase Krobo, where you had gone to attend to important family matters in your role as the head of the family, you departed from us. Even in your final days, you remained committed to duty, family, and responsibility, values that defined your life.

Daa, as we affectionately called you, you were a loving, caring, and selfless man who consistently placed the needs of your children and family above your own. You were calm, quiet, and gentle in spirit, yet firm in your sense of responsibility. You spoke little, but your actions spoke volumes. You always found a way to provide what was needed, often sacrificing quietly so that your family would not lack.

Daddy, you found your greatest joy in the presence of your children and grandchildren. Seeing us together brought you deep happiness, and you always took pride in the progress we were making in life. Our achievements, no matter how small, filled your heart with contentment and reassured you that your efforts had not been in vain.

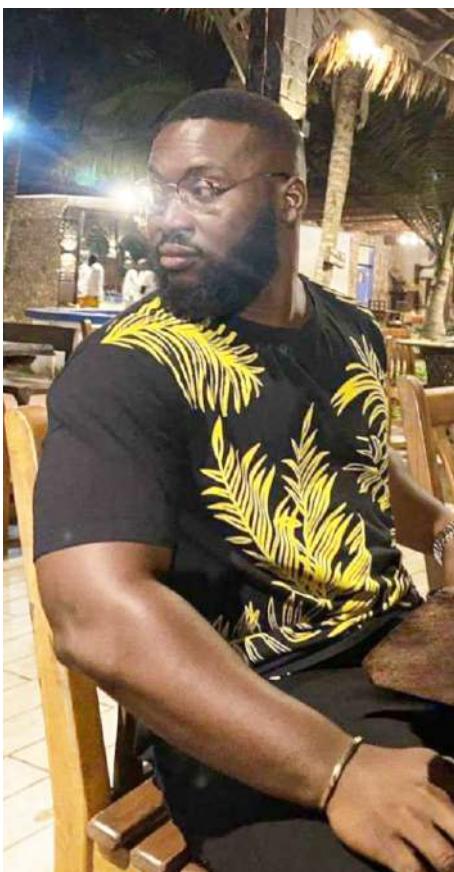

Though we mourn your loss, we are grateful for the life you lived and the legacy you leave behind, a legacy of love, sacrifice, responsibility, and quiet strength. So till we meet again, your children Larweh, Akweley, Akwetey and David say that your memory will live on in our hearts and in the values, you instilled in us and grandchildren. Sleep on Daddy, sleep soundly in the gentle arms of our ever loving and gracious Lord.

Your love remains with us always.

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MR EMMANUEL NARH GLOVER BY THE TEYE GLOVER FAMILY

This World is not my Home. I am just passing through Treasures are laid down somewhere beyond the blues
Angels beckon on me from heaven's open door
And I can't feel at home in this world anymore

Jim Reeves

We received the news of your death with uttermost shock and dismay. Our hearts are heavy because it never crossed our minds that you would leave us too soon, but we are comforted by Isaiah 57:1-2

Good people pass away
The godly often die before their time
But no one seems to care or wonder why
No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come
For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die

You were in Odumase Krobo to attend to family issues as always being the Head of the Teye Glover Family. You left for Accra after ensuring the family issues that brought you to Odumase Krobo were done. Little did we know that it was going to be your last task we were going to carry out as the Head of Family. What happened, what went wrong? We keep asking, but there is no answer.

Your period as the Head of Family has seen some remarkable development. It's unfortunate you could not see the renovation of your father's room to completion. However, by the grace of God the renovation will be completed to your memory. You were meticulous and ensured that all family matters were well done.

As we lay you to rest, we are overcome with all kinds of emotions. Your memory will ever remain with the entire family because "Those we love never truly leave us"—Jack Throne.

We thank God for your life and your devotion to the Family
May the Good Lord Keep You Safe and Grant You Eternal Rest
Amen

TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MR EMMANUEL NARH GLOVER BY NIECES AND NEPHEWS

There is a right time and a right way to do everything, but we know so little! <sup>7</sup>None of us knows what is going to happen, and there is no one to tell us. <sup>8</sup>No one can keep from dying or put off the day of death. That is a battle we cannot escape; we cannot cheat our way out. Eccl 8:6-8

It's with infinite sorrow and sadness that we pay our last respect to our dear Uncle whom we affectionately call "Uncle Narh". We know that you are human and mortal, but our selfishness has made us to forget that death would take you away from us one day. We give thanks to God for your life and the time you shared with us

As we grew older, you saw and treated us as your Brothers and Sisters instead of nieces and nephews. You were a father to all and welcomed us with open arms and your doors were always open for consultations. Your departure has created a vacuum. We will miss the good times we shared especially when we meet at Odumase Krobo. Your passing away is a gentle reminder to us that life is indeed short and full of uncertainties. Therefore, we must seize every opportunity to be there for each other.

What shall we say? The Lord gave you to us and He has taken you away in His own time. We love you but God loves you best. We thank God for all that you did for each one of us. We are indeed very grateful.

Rest Peacefully in the Bossum of the Lord

Tribute to Our Beloved Grandfather

Grandpa, you were gentle, calm, and kind. You welcomed us with open arms and a warm heart whenever we visited. You listened to us, smiled at us, and made us feel loved simply by being near you. Your quiet presence gave us comfort, and your love made us feel safe.

You were happiest when your children and grandchildren were together. Seeing us run around you, laugh, and gather as a family brought joy to your heart. You encouraged us in your own gentle way, and even without many words, we felt your pride and love for us.

Though we will miss you deeply, we are thankful for the time we shared with you and the legacy of love, unity, and responsibility you leave behind. We promise to remember you, to live by the values you stood for, and to carry your love with us always.

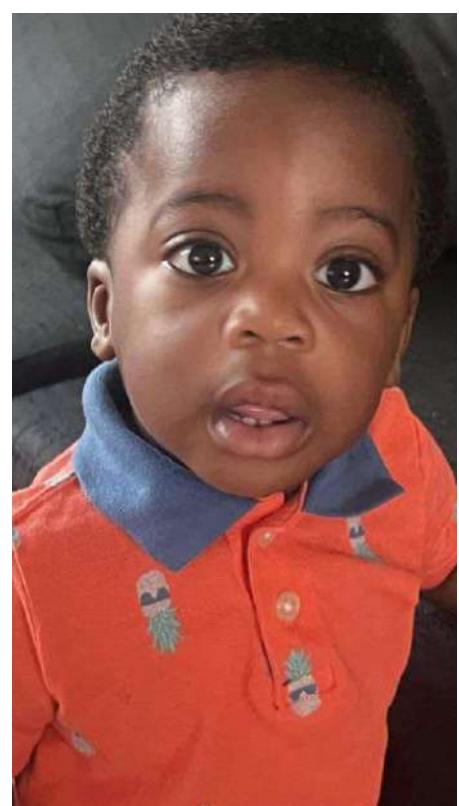

Rest Well Grandpa,

Your love will forever remain in our hearts.

IN-LAWS

Gloria Korchoe Korley

Hymn

PHB 553

1. My strength renew, O Lord my God, In all my life on earth. Grant that with all my strength serve You, Love You with all my life.
2. Lord Jesus, help Thy servants now, Behold Thee as Thou art. Delight in service here on earth, Most glorious be in Heav'n.
3. The sufferings of this present time, And sin shall be no more. We'll join the host of Saints above ,Sing Hallelujah, there.
4. The life in Heaven shall be great, Eyes have not seen such life. But we believe what Jesus said, His glory we shall share.

PHB 787 (1-3)1.

All the Saints shall be with God, In Him they have treasure great. They shall be with Christ their Lord, With Him they shall always live.

2. Some are leaving us today, Others soon shall follow them, But we do not ask to know, Whether here is home for us?
3. If the Lord gives us a choice, To be with Him now or wait, Many would like to be here, They shall mourn to leave this earth.

PHB 810 (1-3)

1. Now the laborer's task is o'er; Now the battle day is past; Now upon the farther shore Lands the voyager at last. Refrain Father, in Thy gracious keeping Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.
2. There the tears of earth are dried; There its hidden things are clear; There the work of life is tried By a juster Judge than here. Refrain
3. There the Shepherd, bringing home Many a lamb forlorn and strayed, Shelters each, no more to roam, Where the wolf can ne'er invade. Refrain

With Sincere Gratitude

The loss of our father has left a void in our lives that feels impossible to fill. Yet, in the midst of our sorrow, we are deeply moved by the outpouring of love and support we have received.

We want to express our deepest thanks to everyone who reached out, traveled to be with us, or simply held us in your thoughts. Grief can be a lonely road, but the many ways you have honored his memory remind us that we are not walking it alone. Knowing how much he was loved by all of you brings us a sense of peace we cannot quite describe.

A special note of thanks goes to the Presbyterian Church of Ghana, Helen Congregation, Kodjonya. Your prayers, spiritual guidance, and unwavering support have been a pillar of strength for our family during this difficult time.

To everyone who has stood by us: your kindness has helped us celebrate a life that meant everything to us. Thank you for being part of his story, and for being part of ours.
